

TRADING TERMS

PART 1 – TRADING TERMS

1. TERMS

These Trading Terms apply to all Orders and Provisioning Requests accepted by PISG.

2. ORDERS FOR SERVICES

2.1. PISG and the Customer may agree in writing to any Order for PISG to provide the Services specified in the Order.

2.2. Subject to PISG:

(a) agreeing in writing to the Order; and

(b) receiving any other necessary information substantially in the form prescribed by PISG, the Services specified in the Order will be provided in accordance with the Agreement.

2.3. PISG has no liability for charges, costs or expenses incurred by or on behalf of the Customer to another Provider or other third party prior to the applicable Service Start Date.

2.4. The Services will be provided for the Minimum Period, unless stated otherwise in the Order.

2.5. Subject to clause 2.4, the parties may agree to align Services under the same or a different Order to have a common Renewal Date.

2.6. If the Customer does not wish some or all of the Services to continue beyond the Renewal Date for those Services, it must provide notice of cancellation to PISG at least 90 days prior to that Renewal Date. If no such notice is given, the Services are automatically renewed as and from that Renewal Date for the Renewal Period, unless stated otherwise in the applicable Service Schedule.

2.7. If the Customer gives notice of cancellation in accordance with clause 2.6, the applicable Services will be cancelled with effect from the Renewal Date and clause 16.5 will apply to the affected Services.

2.8. If the Customer cancels any Services after PISG has agreed to the Order but prior to the Service Start Date for those Services, clause 16.5 will apply to the affected Services.

3. SUPPLY OF SERVICES

3.1. PISG:

(a) will determine how the Services are provided, select the Providers, port the numbers or any services to PISG's preferred Providers (to the extent that preselection is available or applicable), or to arrange least cost routing of traffic;

(b) will invoice the Customer for all Charges incurred in connection with:

(i) the use of the Designated CLIs and Services; and/or

(ii) the provision of the Services or the installation of any Equipment;

- (c) will carry out any actions necessary or incidental to give effect to this clause (including signing and submitting on the Customer's behalf any necessary authority forms or other details required to provide the Services);
 - (d) may vary the terms of any Service Schedule at any time upon notice to the Customer, provided the change is not inconsistent with these Trading Terms; and
 - (e) may engage subcontractors or other Providers to supply some or all of the Services.
- 3.2. If PISG proposes to vary the specifications of the Services (including the way in which PISG delivers the Services to the Customer) in a way that will have a material adverse effect on the Customer's day to day use of the Services, PISG will not make that variation without obtaining the Customer's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).
- 3.3. Subject to clause 3.2, PISG may vary the specifications of the Services (including the way in which PISG delivers the Services to the Customer), at any time without giving the Customer any notice of such variation.
- 3.4. If the Customer wishes to change the Services by way of service upgrade, it shall notify PISG of its intention in writing. If PISG is able to accede to the request made by the Customer, PISG shall use commercially reasonable endeavours to implement the service upgrade after the Customer's request or such other dates as PISG may agree with the Customer. No downgrade of the Services is permitted during the Minimum Period. PISG shall, in its sole and absolute discretion, determine whether any change in Services is an upgrade or downgrade and the Customer shall be bound by PISG's determination thereof.
- 3.5. In the event of any change to the Services in accordance with the Agreement, all other relevant provisions of the Agreement shall be amended or deemed amended to reflect such change and corresponding Charges.
- 3.6. The Customer shall sign a Service Report upon the successful installation of any Equipment and the Customer is able to access the Services. In the absence of a signed Service Report, PISG shall be entitled to treat the installation of such Equipment or the provision of such Services as duly installed or provided.

4. PROVISIONING

- 4.1. The Customer may at any time issue a Provisioning Request to PISG. PISG may in its absolute discretion accept or reject any Provisioning Request issued to it.
- 4.2. PISG may issue a Provisioning Request Confirmation on receipt of all necessary technical information from the Customer. The issue of a Provisioning Request Confirmation constitutes acceptance by PISG of the Provisioning Request to which it relates, subject to the terms of that Provisioning Request Confirmation.
- 4.3. The Customer is liable for all Charges incurred in implementing or arising out of an accepted Provisioning Request and Provisioning Request Confirmation. If Services are being cancelled, additional payments may apply in accordance with clause 16.5.
- 4.4. Subject to clause 4.5, PISG will provide the Services in accordance with the accepted Provisioning Request and the applicable Provisioning Request Confirmation. A Completion Notice will be issued after the Services have been implemented and the Customer is liable for all Charges for the new Services from the date specified in the Completion Notice.
- 4.5. The Customer agrees to provide all necessary assistance, cooperation and information reasonably required by PISG to implement the accepted Provisioning Request and Provisioning Request Confirmation. PISG is not liable for any delays or charges arising from a failure of the Customer to comply with this clause.
- 4.6. If the Customer cancels any Services after PISG has accepted the Provisioning Request but prior to the Service Start Date for those Services, clause 16.5 will apply to the affected Services.

- 4.7. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, the Minimum Period for new Services provisioned under this clause 4 is twenty-four (24) months from the Service Start Date for the new Services and the Minimum Period for existing Services will remain unaffected.

5. MATTERS RELATING TO SERVICES

- 5.1. The Customer acknowledges that:

- (a) the Services may not be free from fault or interruption;
- (b) the Services may be unavailable during Planned Outages or unscheduled maintenance period;
- (c) no warranties or guarantees are given as to the currency, availability, accuracy, security or quality of any information received or accessed using the Services or the Website;
- (d) the Customer is solely responsible for any reliance on or use of the information received or that is accessed when using the Services or the Website; and
- (e) the Services will be provided by PISG using reasonable care and skill.

- 5.2. PISG is entitled, without incurring any liability to the Customer and without prejudice to its rights under clause 16, to suspend any Services immediately or at any time where:

- (a) there is a Planned Outage;
- (b) it is necessary due to a Force Majeure Event;
- (c) PISG considers it is necessary for repair, maintenance or service of any part of a Network, subject to the terms of any applicable Service Level Guarantee;
- (d) PISG has a right under the Agreement to terminate, cancel or suspend the Services;
- (e) PISG suspects that there has been fraudulent or illegal use of the Services or a Designated CLI or that the Customer's account has been compromised or accessed by an unauthorized person;
- (f) PISG believes that there is excessive or unusual use of the Services;
- (g) an Emergency occurs;
- (h) PISG believes the Customer has breached the Agreement (including failing to make payments to PISG when due) and has not remedied that breach within the period specified in PISG's notice;
- (i) PISG believes the Customer is jeopardising the operation or quality of a carrier's Network or the services the carrier supplies to its customers; or
- (j) the Customer poses an Unacceptably High Credit Risk, and PISG will end the suspension as soon as reasonably practicable after the event or circumstance requiring the suspension has ceased (if applicable) or in the case of clause 5.2(h) only, the Customer has remedied the breach within a further period (as specified by PISG in writing).

- 5.3. Any degradation or interruption in the Services due to any event under clause 5.2 shall not give rise to a refund of any sums paid by the Customer to PISG, nor shall it relieve the Customer from its obligations to pay any sums due and payable to PISG.

5.4. PISG shall not be liable for any claim arising from any action or omission by PISG to the extent that such action or omission resulted from compliance by PISG with the Customer's instructions in relation to the Services.

6. CONSULTING SERVICES

6.1. If PISG has agreed to provide Consulting Services, then at the Customer's request PISG will provide such Consulting Services at the Charges agreed and on the terms (including any Service Level Guarantees) applicable to those Consulting Services as specified by PISG from time to time.

6.2. The Order may specify credits to a nominal dollar value that may be used by the Customer for value-added services (including consultancy projects) as agreed in writing by PISG at its then applicable standard rates. Any unused credits will expire upon cancellation or termination of any Services to which those credits relate.

6.3. It is solely the Customer's responsibility to decide whether or not to implement any recommendations made pursuant to the Consulting Services or to act in reliance upon any estimate, opinion, conclusion or other information provided as part of those Services. In providing the Consulting Services, PISG will rely upon its general telecommunications experience but ultimately will act on the Customer's written directions.

6.4. PISG makes no warranty as to the accuracy or reliability of any estimate, opinion, conclusion or recommendation or other information provided as part of the Consulting Services (which may vary at any time without notice), and to the maximum extent permitted by law, disclaims all liability for any loss or damage that may be suffered by the Customer through relying upon the Consulting Services (or anything omitted from the Consulting Services), even if such loss or damage was reasonably foreseeable.

7. SERVICE LEVEL GUARANTEES

7.1. The Services may be supported by a Service Level Guarantee. Depending on the Service Level agreed in writing by the parties, the Service Level Guarantee may entitle the Customer to receive a rebate if it is breached.

7.2. PISG will use reasonable endeavours within its discretion to supply the Services in accordance with or in excess of the Service Levels (if any), but a breach of a Service Level or Service Level Guarantee is not a breach of the Agreement and shall not entitle the Customer to terminate or suspend the Agreement.

7.3. The Service Level Guarantee will not apply to supply of the Services where:

- (a) the interruption is due to a Planned Outage or an Emergency;
- (b) there is a failure or malfunction with the Customer's property, any Customer Equipment, any computer software or power supply to the Premises;
- (c) the failure is as a result of an act or an omission by the Customer or a person under the Customer's direction or control (other than if the act or omission is at PISG's direction), including a breach of the Agreement;
- (d) the failure is due to a Force Majeure Event;
- (e) the Customer fails to notify PISG of the events giving rise to a claim for any rebate based on an alleged breach of a Service Level Guarantee within fourteen (14) days of the event occurring; or
- (f) the failure arises by reason of a requirement imposed upon PISG by a Government, statutory or other relevant authority with jurisdiction over the Services.

7.4. If a rebate is payable for a failure to meet a Service Level Guarantee:

- (a) the maximum amount payable for any failure to meet a Service Level Guarantee in any one (1) calendar month cannot exceed the total Charges payable by the Customer in that month for the Service affected by the failure. Where necessary, this amount will be calculated on a pro-rata basis;
- (b) the Service Level Guarantee may impose a cap on the amount of rebate payable in relation to a single incident;
- (c) any rebate payable under the Service Level Guarantee is the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy under the Agreement for that failure;
- (d) if an incident occurs in one (1) calendar month and continues into the next calendar month, any rebate will be calculated for the entire period of the outage, but will be subject to the limits of the calendar month in which the incident first occurred; and
- (e) if the circumstances of a single event or sequence of events are such that a rebate may be claimed for more than one type of failure to meet a relevant Service Level Guarantee, the Customer's entitlement to obtain a rebate is limited to receiving only one rebate, being that rebate which PISG determines (acting in good faith), will provide the greatest benefit to the Customer.

8. CHARGES

- 8.1. The Customer is liable for all Charges incurred by or on behalf of it under any Order or Provisioning Request.
- 8.2. The Charges are calculated in accordance with the Pricing Schedule, or Order or the PISG Standard Price List (unless stated otherwise in the applicable Service Schedule).
- 8.3. The PISG Rates:
 - (a) will be specified in the Pricing Schedule or Order or an accepted Provisioning Request;
 - (b) unless stated otherwise in the applicable Service Schedule, apply to the Services from their respective Service Start Dates until terminated in accordance with the Agreement;
 - (c) will cease to apply in the event that the Order is not renewed upon expiry of the Minimum Period; and
 - (d) apply only if payment for the Charges is made in accordance with clause 9.
- 8.4. Except to the extent that the PISG Rates apply to a Service or unless stated otherwise in the applicable Service Schedule, the Charges are calculated using the applicable rates for that Service specified in the PISG Standard Price List at the time the Charges are incurred.
- 8.5. If the PISG Rates cease to apply in accordance with clause 8.3, the Charges shall be calculated using the applicable rate in the PISG Standard Price List, unless stated otherwise in the applicable Service Schedule.
- 8.6. PISG may vary:
 - (a) the PISG Rates at any time by providing notice to the Customer to reflect:
 - (i) any increase or decrease in charges passed on to PISG by any Provider; or
 - (ii) the impact of an Exchange Rate Variation on PISG's costs of providing the Services.

Any such variation will take effect from the start of the first billing period not less than thirty (30) days after the notice is given;
 - (b) the PISG Standard Price List at any time without notice to the Customer. Any such variation will take effect from the start of the first billing period not less than thirty (30) days after the date that the latest version of the PISG Standard Price List is posted by PISG to the Website; and

- (c) the service charge imposed by PISG on any payment modes at any time by providing notice to the Customer. Any such variation will take effect from the start of the first billing period not less than thirty (30) days after the notice is given.

8.7. The PISG Rates may also be varied by the written agreement of the parties. Any agreed variation in the PISG Rates will take effect from the start of the first billing period not less than thirty (30) days after the change is agreed or such other date mutually agreed by the Customer and PISG or such other date mutually agreed by the Customer and PISG.

8.8. PISG may round up any Charge to the nearest cent before goods and services tax is applied.

9. INVOICING and PAYMENT

9.1. PISG will invoice the Customer for the Charges from the Service Start Date (with any recurring fees to be prorated accordingly). Invoices may be provided in paper format or electronically. Electronic invoices are subject to any terms and conditions that apply to PISG's online services from time to time. To the extent of any inconsistency between the Charges specified in an invoice and those accessed electronically via the Website, the Charges specified in the invoice will prevail.

9.2. The Customer may in writing request that the Charges be invoiced to specified cost centres, billing entities or other formats. Acceptance of any such request is subject to PISG's reasonable requirements and in any event is not retrospective in operation. The Customer at all times remains liable for all invoiced Charges irrespective of whether the Charges are allocated in any particular way.

9.3. The Customer is responsible for any Tax arising out of or in connection with the Agreement, subject to PISG first providing a tax invoice. Any such Tax will be payable by the Customer in accordance with clause 9.4. If the Customer is required under the law of any jurisdiction outside Singapore to deduct or withhold any sum as a Tax imposed on or in respect of any amount due or payable to PISG, the Customer must make such deduction or withholding as required and the amount payable to the PISG must be increased by any such amount necessary to ensure that PISG receives a net amount equal to the amount which it would have received in the absence of any such deduction or withholding.

9.4. The Customer must pay the Charges (other than any disputed amount withheld in accordance with clause 9.7) and Tax (if applicable) in full within the Payment Period. Unless otherwise agreed, payment must be made by direct deposit into PISG's nominated account. A service charge may apply to any payments.

9.5. No implication arises that the Charges set out in an invoice are not payable in circumstances including, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) not all Charges incurred in a billing period are included in the same invoice; or
- (b) incorrect invoices are issued and amended or additional invoices are subsequently issued.

9.6. Subject to clause 9.7, if some or all invoiced Charges are not paid within the Payment Period, PISG may, without prejudice to its rights under clause 16, do any or all of the following:

- (a) by notice cease using the PISG Rates in respect of the Services and assess the Charges by reference to the applicable rates in the PISG Standard Price List until payment in full (including interest and other charges) is made;
- (b) impose interest on the outstanding amount from the due date until it is paid in full at the rate of two per cent (2%) per month. Such interest shall accrue daily until the outstanding amount is fully paid to PISG notwithstanding the termination of the Agreement;

- (c) by seven (7) days' notice suspend availability of the Services, without terminating the Agreement, until payment in full (including interest and other charges) is made;
- (d) report the default to a credit reporting agency; and
- (e) charge a late payment fee of five (5) Singapore dollars

9.7. If the Customer in good faith genuinely disputes any invoiced Charges, the Customer may withhold the disputed amount, but only if on or before expiry of the Payment Period:

- (a) the undisputed amount of the invoice is paid in full; and
- (b) notice is given of the dispute, setting out details of the amount disputed, the reasons for the dispute and the basis for calculating the disputed amount.

PISG will investigate the dispute and (if applicable) raise it with the Provider. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that PISG's decision (or the Provider's decision if applicable) on the disputed amount is final. If the disputed amount is found to be payable (in whole or in part), then the Customer must pay that amount within fourteen (14) days of receiving notice of the decision. Invoiced Charges that are not disputed in good faith within one (1) month of the date of an invoice are deemed to be correct.

- 9.8. PISG may offset any amounts payable to the Customer (including rebates) against any outstanding Charges.
- 9.9. Pacific Internet (S) Pte Ltd shall be entitled to charge a cancellation fee in the event the Customer cancels the Agreement after the Contract is signed.
- 9.10. The Customer shall be solely responsible for all Charges incurred through the use or purported use (regardless whether it is authorized) of the Customer's account with PISG including without limitation internet roaming charges, local loop charges and charges imposed by third parties. The Customer will be liable for and shall pay on demand to PISG any charges incurred by any unauthorized or illegal log-ins for any reason whatsoever.
- 9.11. The Customer may request PISG to attend at the Installation Address of any Equipment in respect of any failure or disruption of the affected Services. PISG reserves the right to impose Charges for the site visit if it is subsequently determined that such failure or disruption is attributable to the Customer's fault.
- 9.12. Time shall be of the essence in relation to any sums due and payable by the Customer to PISG.

10. CREDIT ASPECTS

10.1. The Customer consents to PISG obtaining at any time a credit report from a credit reporting agency.

10.2. If:

- (a) any credit report obtained pursuant to clause 10.1 is in PISG's view unfavourable;
- (b) the Customer has breached clause 9.4 on two (2) or more occasions; or
- (c) the Customer poses an Unacceptably High Credit Risk,

PISG reserves the right (without prejudice to its rights under clause 16), to:

- (i) require the Customer to provide a Security or to increase the amount of any existing Security or provide an additional form of Security; or

- (ii) impose a Credit Limit for any Charges that may be incurred under the Agreement.

10.3. Any Security required under clause 10.2 must be provided in a form and method acceptable to PISG within seven (7) days of the date of PISG's notice.

11. CUSTOMER OBLIGATIONS

11.1. The Customer is responsible for:

- (a) controlling access to and use of the Services, except to the extent otherwise agreed in writing by the parties;
- (b) controlling access to and use of any passwords provided by PISG (including but not limited to the Customer's personal identification numbers);
- (c) ensuring that the Services are used only in accordance with the Agreement and all applicable laws and that such use does not violate any third-party rights;
- (d) ensuring the security of any communications made using the Services or any Customer Equipment connected to the Services. PISG does not guarantee or warrant the security or privacy of any communications made using the Services and shall not be responsible for any data retrieved, stored or transmitted through the Services by the Customer;
- (e) payment of all Charges, even if it resells, or distributes any of the Services;
- (f) using the Services in accordance with the Agreement and such other conditions as may be notified in writing to the Customer by PISG from time to time;
- (g) obtaining and maintaining any necessary licences, permissions and consents which may be required for the Services; and
- (h) cooperating with PISG in all matters relating to the Services.

11.2. The Customer must comply with any Acceptable Use Policies that are applicable to the Services.

11.3. The Customer must not knowingly introduce or allow the introduction of any virus, worm, trojan horse, zombie, keylogger or other malicious code into the Services or any Network.

11.4. The Customer shall not resell or otherwise provide the Services or allow the use of any PISG Equipment to any third party without PISG's prior written consent, whether for profit or otherwise.

12. PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT

12.1. A range of Equipment may be offered for sale for the Customer's use with the Services. Subject to PISG's rights under clause 10 and any Credit Limit imposed by PISG under that clause, the Customer may at any time order such Equipment (at PISG's then current list price) using an Order or Provisioning Request for any Equipment. PISG may in its absolute discretion accept or reject such an order.

12.2. The following conditions apply to any Purchased Equipment:

- (a) title to any Purchased Equipment does not pass and remains with PISG until the Purchased Equipment is paid for in full;
- (b) the Purchased Equipment is at the Customer's risk immediately on delivery to the Customer, irrespective of when payment is due from the Customer. Consequently, if any Purchased Equipment is damaged, lost or stolen after delivery the Customer will still be liable to pay PISG for it in full. Upon such delivery and until the Customer has paid in full for the Purchased Equipment, the Customer shall keep in safe custody the Purchased Equipment and shall not to remove, delete or otherwise make obscure any original identification mark placed on the Purchased Equipment; and

- (c) if the Purchased Equipment is not paid in full by the relevant due date, PISG may at any time (without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to PISG) require the Customer to deliver up the Purchased Equipment, failing which PISG shall have the right to enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Purchased Equipment is stored in order to recover it.

12.3. The Customer accepts exclusively the applicable terms and conditions of the manufacturer's warranty in respect of all Purchased Equipment and agrees that PISG has no obligation to the Customer for any malfunction of or damage to any Purchased Equipment.

12.4. The Customer acknowledges that it has relied upon its own skill and judgement in selecting the Purchased Equipment.

12.5. If the Customer is in breach of its payment obligations under clause 9 or the Services under an applicable Order have been cancelled or terminated, and the Purchased Equipment has not been returned to PISG on written request, then:

- (a) PISG may without notice re-take and resume possession of any Purchased Equipment that has not been entirely paid for and may through its authorised representatives enter the Customer's premises or any other premises where the Purchased Equipment may be kept without being liable for any loss or damage occasioned by such action; and
- (b) the Customer indemnifies PISG against any claim made against PISG for loss or damage arising out of any permissible actions taken in accordance with clause 12.5(a).

13. PISG EQUIPMENT

13.1. This clause only applies if PISG is providing PISG Equipment as part of the Services.

13.2. Title to the PISG Equipment is retained by PISG or (if applicable) the third party (including any Provider) involved in the supply of the Services and nothing in the Agreement will be construed as conferring ownership upon the Customer. The Customer acknowledges that despite any law to the contrary or an affixation of the PISG Equipment to the Premises, the PISG Equipment is and remains the property of PISG or the relevant third party.

13.3. PISG reserves all rights in the PISG Equipment not expressly granted to the Customer.

13.4. The Customer must:

- (a) operate the PISG Equipment with due care and skill; and by using appropriately qualified personnel;
- (b) comply with all PISG's reasonable directions in respect of any PISG Equipment;
- (c) not allow any PISG Equipment to be altered, repaired, serviced, moved or connected to or disconnected from any power source other than by personnel approved by PISG;
- (d) not transfer, sell, hire or give away any PISG Equipment or any of its rights in any PISG Equipment; and
- (e) assume all risk of loss or damage to any PISG Equipment while it is in its possession or control (except to the extent of PISG's gross negligence).

14. INFORMATION

14.1. The Customer:

- (a) will promptly provide PISG with all information that PISG (including PISG's contractors and agents) may reasonably require in order to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement or any of its contractual obligations to any Provider or other supplier and ensure that such information is true, complete, accurate and not misleading;
- (b) authorizes PISG to obtain such information as PISG may need from time to time from any Provider for the purpose of fulfilling its obligations under the Agreement or as otherwise required or permitted by law;
- (c) authorizes PISG to obtain from or give to any credit providers named in a credit report or credit reporting agency, information about the Customer's credit arrangements which may include any information as to the Customer's creditworthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity that credit providers or credit reporting agencies are allowed by law to give or receive;
- (d) consents to PISG and any Provider involved in the supply of the Services exchanging call charging and other information concerning the Customer's account (including End User Service Information);
- (e) consents to PISG using End User Service Information for the purpose of marketing other services to the Customer; and
- (f) will comply with all applicable Data Protection Laws, including ensuring that it has given and/or obtained all necessary consents and/or notices thereunder.

14.2. The Customer consents to PISG collecting and authorizes PISG to use, exchange or disclose any information provided by the Customer (including End User Service Information) with PISG's Providers, contractors and agents to the extent necessary to install and supply the Services.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY

15.1. The Customer acknowledges that the contents of the Agreement and any pricing or product information (including in any proposal) provided by PISG constitute commercially sensitive and confidential information, except to the extent that it is published on a publicly available portion of the Website. The Customer agrees not to disclose (and shall procure that its employees, officers, agents and consultants do not disclose) that information to any third party without PISG's prior written consent, unless legally compelled to do so, and then only after providing notice to PISG of the making of that order.

15.2. PISG acknowledges that the information supplied by the Customer or received by PISG from a Provider in relation to the Services is commercially sensitive and may contain confidential information. Subject to its rights under clauses 9 and 14 and the Privacy Policy, PISG agrees not to disclose to any third party any information provided by the Customer and that the Customer asserts is confidential information without the Customer's prior written consent, unless for any of the following purposes:

- (a) planning, provisioning and billing for telecommunication Services or Equipment to be provided by PISG;
- (b) managing bad debt;
- (c) fraud prevention; or
- (d) disclosure as required by law or the rules of any relevant regulatory body.

16. TERMINATION and CONSEQUENCES

16.1. PISG is entitled to terminate:

- (a) the Agreement or any Services with immediate effect without notice to the Customer if:
 - (i) subject to clause 9.7, the Customer fails to pay in full the Charges due under an Order or Provisioning Request within fourteen (14) days of the end of the Payment Period;
 - (ii) the Customer breaches the Agreement (including failing to observe the Minimum Period);
 - (iii) the Customer is subject to an Insolvency Event; and/or
 - (iv) the Customer breaches any licence, permit, authorisation or law relating to the use of any of the Services; or
- (b) any Services on thirty (30) days' notice if PISG's right to provide those Services is revoked, terminated or otherwise restricted as a result of government action, regulatory change, or any action lawfully taken by a Provider under any agreement between the Provider and PISG for the supply of the Services (without PISG being liable to the Customer for the termination of those Services).

16.2. The Customer is entitled to cancel any Services with immediate effect on giving notice to PISG if PISG is subject to an Insolvency Event.

16.3. Subject to clause 16.5, either party is entitled to cancel any Service without reason by providing at least ninety (90) days prior notice, unless stated otherwise in the applicable Service Schedule.

16.4. On cancellation or termination of Services or the Agreement for any reason:

- (a) PISG may cease providing the Services and terminate the licence set out in clause 21.2 with immediate effect;
- (b) all Charges and any other amounts owing by the Customer for those Services, including the amounts calculated in accordance with clause 16.5, are immediately due and payable; and
- (c) the Customer must, in relation to the cancelled Services, immediately return to PISG or permit PISG to take possession of:
 - (i) all PISG Equipment; and
 - (ii) any Purchased Equipment that has not been fully paid for.

16.5. In addition to any Charges due under the Agreement, if:

- (a) the Customer cancels some or all of the Services with effect from prior to the expiry of the Minimum Period or, if applicable, any Renewal Period, other than in accordance with clause 16.2;
- (b) the Customer cancels some or all of the Services in accordance with clause 2.8;
- (c) the Customer cancels some or all of the Services in accordance with clause 4.6; or
- (d) PISG terminates the Agreement or any Services in accordance with clause 16.1(a),

the Customer will pay to PISG as a genuine estimate of the loss PISG will incur from early cancellation of the Services, the aggregate of:

- (i) all sums that would have been payable during the unexpired term of the Minimum Period;
- (ii) any early cancellation payments for the Services calculated in accordance with the applicable Service Schedule; and
- (iii) any Charges for any Consulting Services provided to the Customer, calculated at PISG's standard rates, except to the extent that the Customer has already paid for those Consulting Services.

- 16.6. The Customer acknowledges that, in line with industry practice, termination or cancellation of the Agreement or any Services (other than in accordance with clause 16.1(a)) does not mean that the Services will automatically cease to be supplied. The Customer remains liable for all Charges incurred in relation to the Services until they are either cancelled, or transferred to a new service provider, notwithstanding any termination of the Agreement.
- 16.7. The Agreement continues until all Services have been transferred or cancelled as set out in clause 16.6.
- 16.8. Despite any provision in the Agreement to the contrary, the effective date of cancellation of Services or termination of the Agreement will be the date on which PISG ceases to provide any Services to the Customer.

17. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

17.1. To the fullest extent permitted by law, all conditions and warranties in relation to the Services are excluded and PISG is not liable to the Customer (or any party claiming through the Customer), in tort, contract or otherwise (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) for any:

- (a) increased costs or expenses;
- (b) loss of profits, opportunity, use, revenue, data, goodwill, reputation, contracts, business or anticipated savings;
- (c) special, indirect, incidental or consequential damage; or
